4. ICAO Mission Chief Supports TWA's Position vis-a-vis Saudi Airlines.
Embassy hopes that TWA will successfully negotiate a full management contract with Saudi Arabian Airlines (SDI) were raised September 21 told Prince Sultan that the existing system of divided authority and multiple advisors within SDI's management prevented any successful progress by the airline. He recommended their replacement by a reputable foreign airline holding a full management contract. While it was up to SAG to select such an airline, he said, it should not overlook TWA's eighteen years of experience in Saudi Arabia.

The ICAO representative's unexpected and forceful presentation to Prince Sultan lends considerable authority to the position taken by TWA's Morten Beyer, who recently managed to have his virtually identical views put before Prince Sultan in the form of a memorandum from Beyer to the Saudi Director General of SDI (Weeka 32, August 25.) (CONFIDENTIAL)
